Welcome to ART+OBJECT's winter 2017 catalogue – as diverse as any we have offered. The New Collectors art catalogue features a wealth of New Zealand modern and contemporary practice. Works from a number of collecting groups demonstrate the thirst for knowledge and the benefits of a collective approach to building a collection.

For the third time in recent years A+O is pleased to offer an archive collection of artwork by seminal modernist figure Theo Schoon (1915–1985). This collection comes from the estate of Schoon's great friend, the sculptor Peter Sauerbier and is centred around Schoon's research and enquiry into the traditional maori art of Ta moko. The examples we see in this collection vary from faithful reproductions of source material to imaginative responses to the form, each vital steps in Schoon's lifelong engagement with the indigenous art of Aotearoa. Schoon's research based approach, which he shared with artists such as Gordon Walters, Dennis Knight-Turner and A.R.D. Fairburn was a central element in the development of the unique post WWII NZ art scene and these works add another vital page to what will ultimately be a fascinating potential future exposition of the Dutch émigré's contribution to our visual arts journey at this time.

Dunedin rugby identity Charlie Saxton (1913–2001) also made a telling contribution to our sporting culture. His estate collection which is offered on June 22 has been carefully catalogued and researched by A+O's manager of Rare Books, Pam Plumbly, herself a fellow Dunedinite. Saxton's life in the game spanned almost his entire life – as a player, coach and manager of the Otago and All Blacks. It is hard to choose a particular highlight from his collection, much of it accompanied by extensive notes by Saxton detailing key games, opponents and information that only the original source could provide. For any fan of our national game the viewing at A+O from June 16 to 22 should be a unique insight into the history of our game. Perhaps the heart of the collection is the wealth of material relating to the legendary 'Kiwis' 2nd NZEF tour that commenced upon the cessation of WWII hostilities in 1945.

As this catalogue was going to press the NZ art world became aware of the very sad news of the death of the artist and gallerist Barry Lett. As a gallerist Barry was a leading figure in the late sixties and seventies Auckland art world – so many of our leading artists staged groundbreaking exhibitions at the Barry Lett Gallery, which was in many ways the centre of the Auckland art scene for a decade. As an artist Barry's vision was unique. He was equally at home in two or three dimensions. His recent career retrospective at the Pah Homestead was one of the best attended openings of recent year. as Three generations of artists, collectors and friends came together to celebrate a life dedicated to the New Zealand visual arts.

Rugby Memorabilia including the Estate of Charlie Saxton

In 1978 Charlie Saxton (1913–2001) was awarded the MBE for services to Rugby. In a career that spanned his days as a player for Otago, Southland and the All Blacks in the 1930s and 40s, captain of the legendary 'Kiwis' in 1945/46 (2nd Expeditionary Force team), coaching the Otago team in the 1950s and managing the All Blacks on the 1967 tour to Britain, France and Canada and finally as President of the NZRFU there was quite literally nothing he did contribute to the world of Rugby.

C.K. Saxton was born in 1913 in Kurow, near Oamaru. As a young man of moderate height he was a natural halfback and went onto to play for Otago, South Canterbury and Southland in the 1930s and also played first class cricket for Otago from 1934-39. He went onto play seven games for the All Blacks prior to the war.

Charlie Saxton's collection, which features a wealth of rare material from some of the great moments of New Zealand rugby in the 20th century is testimony to a life dedicated to our national sport. ART+OBJECT is privileged to offer such a collection – both personal to a Dunedin and New Zealand identity but also so representative of the life of the game in war and peace.

He was selected to play in the second test against the All Blacks in Brisbane and in an amazing coincidence Winston Ide a Queenslander was also selected, together, the first Asian Wallabies. The young Romalli was the standout performer but at a cost he played the second half with a broken nose and two black eyes. He was selected for the third Wallabies tour of the British Isles, war broke out and cut the tour short, Romalli enlisted and was posted to Malaya, where he was captured and sent to Changi POW camp and then North to build the Burma Railway, he survived and was sent in a convoy ship to Nagasaki as slave labour to work in the coal mines. He was supposed to be on the 'Rokyo' But just missed what became a roll call of the damned, torpedoed by the USS Sealion, killing 549 Australians including fellow Wallabies team mate Winston Ide.*

On his return Romalli told his son Peter about surviving the Nagasaki atomic bomb dropped 9 August 1945. "He was down in the mine under Nagasaki Harbour, when his 12 hour shift was extended to a 24 hour shift. By the time he came up there was no city left".

Conditions of Sale

Please note: it is assumed that all bidders at auction have read and agreed to the conditions described on this page. Art+Object directors are available during the auction viewing to clarify any questions you may have.

1. Registration: Only registered bidders may bid at auction. You are required to complete a bidding card or absentee bidding form prior to the auction giving your correct name, address and telephone contact + supplementary information such as email addresses that you may wish to supply to Art+Object.

2. Bidding: The highest bidder will be the purchaser subject to the auctioneer accepting the winning bid and any vendor's reserve having been reached. The auctioneer has the right to refuse any bid. If this takes place or in the event of a dispute the auctioneer may call for bids at the previous lowest bid and proceed from this point. Bids advance at sums decreed by the auctioneer unless signaled otherwise by the auctioneer. No bids may be retracted. The auctioneer retains the right to bid on behalf of the vendor up to the reserve figure.

3. Reserve: Lots are offered and sold subject to the vendor's reserve price being met.

4. Lots offered and sold as described and viewed: Art+Object makes all attempts to accurately describe and catalogue lots offered for sale. Notwithstanding this neither the vendor nor Art+Object accepts any liability for errors of description or faults and imperfections whether described in writing or verbally. This applies to questions of authenticity and quality of the item. Buyers are deemed to have inspected the item thoroughly and proceed on their own judgment. The act of bidding is agreed by the buyer to be an indication that they are satisfied on all counts regarding condition and authenticity.

5. Buyers premium: The purchaser by bidding acknowledges their acceptance of a buyers premium of 17.5% + GST on the premium to be added to the hammer price in the event of a successful sale at auction.

6. ART+OBJECT is an agent for a vendor: A+O has the right to conduct the sale of an item on behalf of a vendor. This may include withdrawing an item from sale for any reason.

7. Payment: Successful bidders are required to make full payment immediately post sale – being either the day of the sale or the following day. If for any reason payment is delayed then a 20% deposit is required immediately and the balance to 100% required within 3 working days of the sale date. Payment can be made by Eftpos, bank cheque or cash. Cheques must be cleared before items are available for collection. Credit cards are not accepted.

8. Failure to make payment: If a purchaser fails to make payment as outlined in point 7 above Art+Object may without any advice to the purchaser exercise its right to: a) rescind or stop the sale, b) re offer the lot for sale to an underbidder or at auction. Art+Object reserves the right to pursue the purchaser for any difference in sale proceeds if this course of action is chosen, c) to pursue legal remedy for breach of contract.

9. Collection of goods: Purchased items are to be removed from Art+Object premises immediately after payment or clearance of cheques. Absentee bidders must make provision for the uplifting of purchased items (see instructions on the facing page)

10. Bidders obligations: The act of bidding means all bidders acknowledge that they are personally responsible for payment if they are the successful bidder. This includes all registered absentee or telephone bidders. Bidders acting as an agent for a third party must obtain written authority from Art+Object and provide written instructions from any represented party and their express commitment to pay all funds relating to a successful bid by their nominated agent.

11. Bids under reserve & highest subject bids: When the highest bid is below the vendor's reserve this work may be announced by the auctioneer as sold 'subject to vendor's authority' or some similar phrase. The effect of this announcement is to signify that the highest bidder will be the purchaser at the bid price if the vendor accepts this price. If this highest bid is accepted then the purchaser has entered a contract to purchase the item at the bid price plus any relevant buyers premium.

Important advice for buyers

The following information does not form part of the conditions of sale, however buyers, particularly first time bidders are recommended to read these notes.

A. Bidding at auction: Please ensure your instructions to the auctioneer are clear and easily understood. It is well to understand that during a busy sale with multiple bidders the auctioneer may not be able to see all bids at all times. It is recommended that you raise your bidding number clearly and without hesitation. If your bid is made in error or you have misunderstood the bidding level please advise the auctioneer immediately of your error – prior to the hammer falling. Please note that if you have made a bid and the hammer has fallen and you are the highest bidder you have entered a binding contract to purchase an item at the bid price. New bidders in particular are advised to make themselves known to the sale auctioneer who will assist you with any questions about the conduct of the auction.

B. Absentee bidding: Art+Object welcomes absentee bids once the necessary authority has been completed and lodged with Art+Object. A+O will do all it can to ensure bids are lodged on your behalf but accepts no liability for failure to carry out these bids. See the Absentee bidding form in this catalogue for information on lodging absentee bids. These are accepted up to 2 hours prior to the published auction commencement.

C. Telephone bids: The same conditions apply to telephone bids. It is highly preferable to bid over a landline as the vagaries of cellphone connections may result in disappointment. You will be telephoned prior to your indicated lot arising in the catalogue order. If the phone is engaged or connection impossible the sale will proceed without your bidding. At times during an auction the bidding can be frenetic so you need to be sure you give clear instructions to the person executing your bids. The auctioneer will endeavour to cater to the requirements of phone bidders but cannot wait for a phone bid so your prompt participation is requested.

D. New Zealand dollars: All estimates in this catalogue are in New Zealand dollars. The amount to be paid by successful bidders on the payment date is the New Zealand dollar amount stated on the purchaser invoice. Exchange rate variations are at the risk of the purchaser.
