RARE BOOK AUCTION

Wednesday 3rd of May 2017 at 12 noon.

VIEWING:

Sunday 30th April 11.00am - 4.00pm

Monday 1st April 9.00am - 5.00pm

Tuesday 2nd May 9.00am - 5.00pm

The library of James Gordon Wilson (1882-1967) the noted farmer, historian reflects a passionate interest in the history of New Zealand, the Pacific and Hawke's Bay province. Jim Wilson was born in Temuka, North Otago. In 1897 he moved north with his parents to Southern Hawke's Bay when they took up land in the Dannevirke area. In 1907 Wilson brought "Nertherby" his much loved farm located At Hatuma near Waipukurau and lived there for the rest of What proved to be a long and extremely productive life.

On a visit to the Dunedin Exhibition in February 1926 "I saw at Newbold's book shop a beautiful copy of Tasman's Journal. He wanted 10 pounds – I offered 9.

Eventually in July I sent a cheque for 10 pounds and got the book. I well remember the thrill of opening the parcel – it has ever since been the 'king of my collection'.

On my way home from the Dunedin Exhibition I called at Smith's bookshop in Wellington. On the counter were the 2 volumes in one of McKay's Native Affairs of the South Island. I paid him 4 pounds 10 for it and was so worried about something I forgot to take it away. Fortunately he was honest and posted the book to "Netherby".

"The late Bishop Herbert Williams collection was sold at Bethune's. I could not attend but asked Johannes Anderson to buy for me. He brought Labillardiere's Search for La Perouse at 25/- and Colenso's Church at Ahuriri and a bundle of Hawke's Bay Heralds of the 1870s – good buying". "My copy of Sydney Parkinson's Account of Cook's Voyage was imported from London by Mr C Thomas a Napier chemist. It arrived shortly after the quake of 1931. Thomas asked me to take it off his hands as he was very short of money".

The early Maori history of Southern Hawkes Bay was one of many absorbing interests.

In 1918 Wilson was involved in the excavation of early artifacts from the swamp on his neighbour Cliff Schroder's farm in the Hatuma district and to the end of his days loved fossicking in the Pourerere beach area. A respected member of The Polynesian Society he counted the eminent ethnologist and historian W.J. Phillips among his close friends and correspondents.

Today J.G. (Jim) Wilson is best remembered for his monumental History of Hawke's Bay, written for New Zealand's Centenary in 1940.

James Gordon Wilson

Art and Object have been privileged to receive for auction an important collection of rugby memorabilia from the estate of Charlie Saxton, one of New Zealand's best loved rugby legends. He played seven matches for the All Blacks including three internationals and at the conclusion of W.W. II he captained the NZEF "Kiwi's" team on their 1945-46 tour of Britain and Europe. The sale will be held in June during the tour of the British and Irish Lions in June 2017. Selected entries for this sale important sale are invited.

- 141 GREGORY, WILLIAM, [3 ITEMS]
Second attempted Missionary Voyage to the Pacific
 1. Original journal, [1790's] a rare first-hand account of the second attempted missionary voyage to the Pacific in the 'Duff'. 109p in closely penned ink hand writing and bound in the original vellum, one large folding inserted chart [39 x 55cms] featuring in hand writing a calendar of the happenings on the voyage with months and dates, small ink sketches illustrate the major events, including a sketch of the Duff being fired upon by Le Bonaparte.
 The Journal has been sympathetically restored, using the original binding.
William Gregory a member of the London Missionary Society with his wife and children joined the Second Voyage of the Missionary Ship 'Duff' under the command of Captain Robson when it set sail on the 13th of December 1798, its purpose to establish missionary posts in the South Sea Islands. The Duff and its passengers never reached the Pacific, on the night of February 19th they were captured by the French privateer Le Grand Bonaparte off Cape Frio. He describes in much detail his journey, his capture including a graphic description of being transferred to a Portuguese Brig with 180 negro slaves as her cargo, where he found '...A new distressful scene opened to the view, and operated deeply on the feeling of my heart, the deck was covered with the poor wretched sons and daughters of Africa...; his time spent captive in South America and includes descriptions of their stay, further capture and captivity; coming upon the scene of a young lad who had fallen overboard '... I beheld his struggles without being able to give assistance and was compelled to withdraw from the distressing sight...'. The journal finishes in October, before their final arrival in Falmouth on October 13th
 2. William Gregory - A Visible Display of Divine Providence; or The Journal of a Captured Missionary, designated to the Southern Pacific Ocean in the Second Voyage of the Ship Duff. London: T. Gillet 1800, first edition. viii, 328p, frontis [folding chart], and complete with plates. 21.5cms, sympathetically restored using the original boards and spine strip, new endpapers.
 Gregory published his book in 1800 soon after his return from capture. He uses his and other missionaries journals as substance for the book.
 3. Contemporary Nautical Almanack with dates relative to Voyage, and other Gregory family details.
Provenance: Direct family descent from Sarah Rebecca the daughter of William Gregory. She married Thomas William Downes in 1836, travelled to New Zealand on the 'John McVicar' in 1857 which disembarked at Nelson. T.W. Downes was appointed Sheriff for Marlborough by Sir George Grey in 1861. His youngest child Walter Gregory Downes became grandfather of Desleigh [Des] Gordon Downes from whose estate the three items come. The journals were discovered in the attic of his Aunt Gwen along with another diary by William Mackworth which gives an account of the attempted settlement of the Auckland Islands 1849-1852. The Mackworth diary came to the family via Juliet Valpy, Mackworth's wife, who married again after his death, her daughter was grandmother to Des Downes. The families were distant relations both of whom had contact with Sir George Grey.

Mount Herbert Station, Waipukurau Accounts 1865-67
 Foolsap ledger, 234p pages in Russell's hand. Bound in modern green cloth with gilt titles.
 An important record covering the period of the town's foundation by Russell. Includes detailed accounts relating to a very wide range of activities; 'Waipukurau Reserve Purchase' [the present site of the town,] farming activities, fencers, surveyors, servants, sawyers, shepherds, 'Wool Bales Clip 1865' totaling 6.769 & various local tradesmen, Lieutenant & the Militia, 'Expenses Rangoon Immigrants', dealings with local Maoris 'Himuona', Hamueera Matamuka' and fellow run holders. Gaisford, J & D Canning, J.D. Ormond, W. Rathbone, Captain Newman to name a few, Contains a wealth of material on the early life of the town and district.
Henry Russell and his brother Purvis are important figures in early Hawkes Bay history. The Russell brothers settled in Waipukurau in 1853 after successfully applying for a grazing run and the right to purchase a homestead. Henry named his 'Mount Herbert Station'. An enterprising man of great energy his flock number rose from 1410 in 1856 to 25,502 in 1879. Henry and Purvis Russell are credited with the founding of Waipukurau. In 1867 Henry Russell purchased the land and laid out the village, drawing up the plans himself and providing sites for churches, schools, a town hall & hospital at his own expense. He insisted that only one business of each kind should be established and that all persons intending to erect buildings should submit plans for his approval. An improver well ahead of his time he advertised for tradesmen and workers in Scottish newspapers. Passage money was paid by Russell and then deducted from wages as was the cost of homes and the first years' rations. The Russell brothers had great influence among local Maori. They were leaders of the controversial 'Repudiationists' who sought to discourage the sale of Maori land.

- 306 HARPOON
Whaling
 With forged 'iron' head mounted on old hand hewn wood shaft, 165 cms in length. Discovered by J.G. Wilson on the site of the shore based whaling station established round 1840 at Tuingara South of Pourerere, Hawkes Bay. The type of iron was invented by Charles Randall of Palmyra, Georgia in the 1840's.
This example is an unusual variant in having the spring-steel pushing the harpoon barbs. According to local tradition an American known as 'Black Peter' was a key figure in the running of the station.

Conditions of sale

Please note: it is assumed that all bidders at auction have read and agreed to the conditions described on this page. ART+OBJECT directors are available during the auction viewing to clarify any questions you may have.

1.

Registration: Only registered bidders may bid at auction. You are required to complete a bidding card or absentee bidding form prior to the auction giving your correct name, address and telephone contact + supplementary information such as email addresses that you may wish to supply to ART+OBJECT

2.

Bidding: The highest bidder will be the purchaser subject to the auctioneer accepting the winning bid and any vendor's reserve having been reached. The auctioneer has the right to refuse any bid. If this takes place or in the event of a dispute the auctioneer may call for bids at the previous lowest bid and proceed from this point. Bids advance at sums decreed by the auctioneer unless signaled otherwise by the auctioneer. No bids may be retracted. The auctioneer retains the right to bid on behalf of the vendor up to the reserve figure.

3.

Reserve: Lots are offered and sold subject to the vendor's reserve price being met.

4.

Lots offered and sold as described and viewed: ART+OBJECT makes all attempts to accurately describe and catalogue lots offered for sale. Notwithstanding this neither the vendor nor ART+OBJECT accepts any liability for errors of description or faults and imperfections whether described in writing or verbally. This applies to questions of authenticity and quality of the item. Buyers are deemed to have inspected the item thoroughly and proceed on their own judgment. The act of bidding is agreed by the buyer to be an indication that they are satisfied on all counts regarding condition and authenticity.

5.

Buyers premium: The purchaser by bidding acknowledges their acceptance of a buyers premium of 18.5% plus GST on the premium to be added to the hammer price in the event of a successful sale at auction. Please consult the relevant auction catalogue to confirm the premium for each sale.

6.

ART+OBJECT is an agent for a vendor: A+O has the right to conduct the sale of an item on behalf of a vendor. This may include withdrawing an item from sale for any reason.

7.

Payment: Successful bidders are required to make full payment immediately post sale – being either the day of the sale or the following day. If for any reason payment is delayed then a 20% deposit is required immediately and the balance to 100% required within 3 working days of the sale date. Payment can be made by Eftpos, bank cheque or cash. Cheques must be cleared before items are available for collection. Credit cards are not accepted.

8.

Failure to make payment: If a purchaser fails to make payment as outlined in point 7 above ART+OBJECT may without any advice to the purchaser exercise its right to: a) rescind or stop the sale, b) re offer the lot for sale to an underbidder or at auction. ART+OBJECT reserves the right to pursue the purchaser for any difference in sale proceeds if this course of action is chosen, c) to pursue legal remedy for breach of contract.

9.

Collection of goods: Purchased items are to be removed from ART+OBJECT premises immediately after payment or clearance of cheques. Absentee bidders must make provision for the uplifting of purchased items (see instructions on the facing page)

10.

Bidders obligations: The act of bidding means all bidders acknowledge that they are personally responsible for payment if they are the successful bidder. This includes all registered absentee or telephone bidders. Bidders acting as an agent for a third party must obtain written authority from ART+OBJECT and provide written instructions from any represented party and their express commitment to pay all funds relating to a successful bid by their nominated agent.

11.

Bids under reserve & highest subject bids: When the highest bid is below the vendor's reserve this work may be announced by the auctioneer as sold 'subject to vendor's authority' or some similar phrase. The effect of this announcement is to signify that the highest bidder will be the purchaser at the bid price if the vendor accepts this price. If this highest bid is accepted then the purchaser has entered a contract to purchase the item at the bid price plus any relevant buyers premium.

Important advice for buyers

The following information does not form part of the conditions of sale, however buyers, particularly first time bidders are recommended to read these notes.

A.

Bidding at auction: Please ensure your instructions to the auctioneer are clear and easily understood. It is well to understand that during a busy sale with multiple bidders the auctioneer may not be able to see all bids at all times. It is recommended that you raise your bidding number clearly and without hesitation. If your bid is made in error or you have misunderstood the bidding level please advise the auctioneer immediately of your error – prior to the hammer falling. Please note that if you have made a bid and the hammer has fallen and you are the highest bidder you have entered a binding contract to purchase an item at the bid price. New bidders in particular are advised to make themselves known to the sale auctioneer who will assist you with any questions about the conduct of the auction.

B.

Absentee bidding: ART+OBJECT welcomes absentee bids once the necessary authority has been completed and lodged with ART+OBJECT. A+O will do all it can to ensure bids are lodged on your behalf but accepts no liability for failure to carry out these bids. See the Absentee bidding form in this catalogue for information on lodging absentee bids. These are accepted up to 2 hours prior to the published auction commencement.

C.

Telephone bids: The same conditions apply to telephone bids. It is highly preferable to bid over a landline as the vagaries of cellphone connections may result in disappointment. You will be telephoned prior to your indicated lot arising in the catalogue order. If the phone is engaged or connection impossible the sale will proceed without your bidding. At times during an auction the bidding can be frenetic so you need to be sure you give clear instructions to the person executing your bids. The auctioneer will endeavour to cater to the requirements of phone bidders but cannot wait for a phone bid so your prompt participation is requested.

D.

New Zealand dollars: All estimates in this catalogue are in New Zealand dollars. The amount to be paid by successful bidders on the payment date is the New Zealand dollar amount stated on the purchaser invoice. Exchange rate variations are at the risk of the purchaser.
