Culture of the Vine in New South Wales.
 Journal of a Recent Visit to the Vineyards of Spain and France: Forming a Guide to the Profitable Culture of the Vine in New South Wales; and to the manufacture of the various wines of Australia and New Zealand to rival those of France, Spain and Portugal... London: Smith Elder & Co 1840, 3rd edition. xiv, 177p, 205mm some spotting and fingermarks along foreedge, complete and mainly clean, signed on half title, James Busby and in the original dark green cloth binding, worn and lacking label, binding complete and tight.
 James Busby 1802-1871 is widely regarded as the 'father' of the Australian wine industry, as he took the first collection of vine stock from Spain and France to Australia.
 He was appointed to the position of British Resident of New Zealand in 1833 and went to the Bay of Islands that year taking with him some of the stock he collected in Europe. A house was completed for him at Waitangi where he planted a vineyard from which wine was being made before his vines were productive in Australia. Wikipedia

68 HAMILTON GEORGE, [LATE SURGEON OF THE PANDORA]

A Voyage Round the World in His Majesty's

Frigate Pandora. Performed under the Direction of Captain Edwards in the Years 1790, 1791 and 1792. With the discoveries made in the South Sea; and the many distresses experienced by the crew from shipwreck and famine, in a voyage of eleven hundred miles in open boats between Endeavour Straits and the Island of Timor. Berwick: Printed by and for W. Phorson; B. Law and Son 1793. 164p, engraved frontispiece portrait, [extreme edge of frontispiece lettering and the foreedge cropped, fingermarks, and browning. Bound in original crosshatched leather binding, titled on spine Hamiltons Voyage.
Rare first edition on the Bounty Mutineers. When William Bligh returned to England in 1790 and news of the mutiny aboard the Bounty finally became known, the Admiralty immediately fitted out the frigate Pandora, Capt. Edward Edwards commanding, to apprehend the mutineers. This account of that voyage is by the ships surgeon George Hamilton. It is the only contemporary published account, as Edwards wrote no complete account of the voyage. In Tahiti, Edwards arrested fourteen mutineers and caged them on Pandora's quarterdeck while he sailed from Tonga to New Guinea in search of the remaining mutineers.
It is now believed that when passing through the Santa Cruz Group he failed to recognize a distress signal from the survivors of La Pérouse's expedition. He made a number of discoveries including Rotuma and determined the best route to Botany Bay, but he failed to locate Pitcairn Island although he had sailed close to it on his outward passage. While surveying Endeavour Strait in the Great Barrier Reef, the Pandora was wrecked and captain and crew took to the ship's boats with the ten surviving mutineers who had been released from their cages, not by Captain Edwards but by the master-at-arms. After a 1,100-mile voyage in open boats through the Torres Straits they landed at Timor where Bligh himself had landed after being cast off from the Bounty. A ship was arranged for them by the Dutch to carry the mutineers to England where all were tried and three were hanged. Bell H24; Ferguson 151; Hill 766; Kroepelien 507; Sabin 30011.

He Matenga totika [Happy Deaths]

An unpublished work by Colenso consisting of accounts of the deaths of some 25 converts to Christianity translated and composed by Colenso. The first part is concerned with cases from foreign parts but 11 Maori notices are included from p63 onwards, including that of Karepa Te Hiaro followed by Mo Makareta Te Hiakai beginning onp 124 and not completed, p132 ending in in the middle of a sentence.

This is a complete uncut copy if cut down centre there would be two copies of each page. Pagination 1-52; 55-74; 77-96; 99-102; 105-108; 111-124; 127-132p.

"Colenso left a large number of these leaves in separate packets, some of which were marked 'He matenga totika', and some 'Happy Deaths' ... " "It is probable, therefore that he worked off a leaf from time to time and that the work was incomplete when his connexion with the Mission terminated abruptly in December 1852..."

254 BRYCE, JOHN [ARCHIVE]

Journal - Written during Bryce v Rusden Trial
A journal containing a hand written diary of 61 pages, from February 6th 1886 to Sunday 9th May 1886, inscribed on endpaper 'John Bryce, Bailey's Hotel, London, Feby 6th 1886.' The journal covers the time awaiting the trial, the postponements '... Really I am getting like little Miss Finch in Bleak House, who commenced every day with a presentiment that judgement would be given that day...' the trial finally beginning Thursday 4th March before Baron Huddleston. It includes his examination by counsel [Sir Henry James] and cross examination by Sir John Gorst. Monday 8th March 'My cross examination terminated today. As I expected as soon as they left the Parihaka matter which has nothing to do with the case they had very little to ask as to the the real libel' The jury retired came back in a quarter of an hour and gave Bryce a verdict for 5,000 pounds. The hand written portion of the diary finishes on Sunday the 9th May on his arrival in Auckland. The journal also covers what appears to be a complete history of the case in newspaper clippings, from England, Australia and New Zealand, there is an index to clippings from, 'The Times' March 5, 1886 and ends with an article in 'The Albany Law Journal April 1888.

Also includes excerpts from despatches to and from London and Wellington, some hand written by John Bryce.

256 INHABITANTS OF, TARANAKI

Address to John Bryce.

Original hand written address presented to John Bryce by Wm Bayley Mayor on April 20, 1883.

'We the inhabitants of the Provincial District of Taranaki have great pleasure in congratulating him on the successful termination of your perilous journey through what is termed "the King Country" a country which for many years has been a menace and a danger to this North island. ...'

'... to your firmness and ability is due the successful occupation of Parihaka and the dispersing of the fanatical following of Te Whiti which for a time spread panic through this district and threatened the peace of the Colony...' The address is signed Wm Bayly, Mayor. 325mm.

Bryce was a significant figure in the invasion of Parihaka, and the movement against Taranaki Maori, on the 5 November 1881 he was at the head of 1,600 armed constabulary to arrest the leaders and disperse the village.

257 KAI IWI TROOP, OF VOLUNTEER CAVALRY

Address to John Bryce

Minister for Native Affairs, on two leaves of folio size paper, handwritten in red and black ink.

'Dear Sir, We the undersigned members of the late Kai Iwi Troop of Volunteer Cavalry formerly under your command in the war of 1868-69 on the West Coast of the North Island of New Zealand, having seen an extract from a work professing to be a "History" of this country in which you are charged with having engaged with your Troop "dashed upon women and children and cut them down gleefully and with ease", assisted by Sergeant Maxwell who to our great regret fell afterwards whilst nobly for his country, and that in consequence of the above act you are known amongst the Maoris by the appellation of "Kohuru or Murderer" herby wish to give a most emphatic denial to such statements which are grossly untrue in every respect...'

The address finishes "With every expression of respect we subscribe ourselves Your faithful friends and hearty well wishers". With thirty nine names inscribed at end.

When Wanganui came under military threat from Ngati Ruanui, the local settlers formed the Kai Iwi Yeomanry Cavalry Volunteers and John Bryce was commissioned as Lieutenant. In November 1868 troops from the cavalry led by Bryce encountered a group of "Hauhau" who proved to be unarmed children, boys chasing geese and pigs near William Handley's woolshed on the Nukumaru Flats. The troops charged, killing two and wounding others. The Commanding Officer reported that Lieutenant Bryce was prominent and set the men a gallant example. The woolshed affair had a sequel years later when G.W. Rusden published his History of New Zealand [1883] in which he accused Bryce and Maxwell of the killings. Bryce sued Rusden for libel and the case was heard in the High Court in London, Bryce despite having been there claimed he had, had no part in the affair. The verdict went against Rusden and resulted in suppression of the incident in his book. Te Aro.

259 LETTERS

W.J. Stewart to John Bryce

3. Letters [3x] W.J. Stewart to John Bryce.

John Bryce resigned from Parliament in 1891 for refusing to withdraw his criticism of the Premier [Harry Atkinson]. The Speaker William Steward ruled the criticism unparliamentary and when Bryce refused to withdraw it, the House passed a vote of censure on him, he left the chamber and never came back. Three of the letters are William Steward's attempts to reconcile and entice Bryce back to the house.

Bryce's reply dated 28/9/91 and marked Private gives his reasons for refusing to return until the 'House' retracts that insult.

275 FRANKLIN EXPEDITION

John Brown - Archive of Letters & Documents

John Brown was a noted advocate of expeditions in search of Sir John Franklin, he defined the area which the expedition was ultimately found to have reached, but was not attended to at the time. This archive of letters and documents has come directly through family connections.

It includes a number of letters to John Brown and replies from Lady Jane Franklin; Sophia Cracroft; August Petermann; W. Parker Snow; Charles C. Forsyth; Sir John Barrow; Sir Roderick Murchison; Sir John Richardson; Captain Richard Collinson; Sir Leopold McClintock; John Arrowsmith; Dr Norton Snow; W.H. Smyth The letters discuss various routes undertaken, and findings of the expeditions. John Arrowsmith to John Brown, discussing Rae '... he thinks some of the crew were alive after 1848, in this he may be right, I for one cannot imagine how 105 men - many of them young, could cease to live in one, two or three months ...' Document on Admiralty letterhead.

Awards to Dr James Rae and his companions sums of money for ascertaining the fate of the Franklin Expedition. The documents lists the amount of money each man received.

A series of letters - from John Brown to the Admiralty. They are passionate pleas for them to follow the route Brown believed Franklin had taken and that was ultimately found to be true.

A total of 57 letters, a number of the letters are in the original envelopes with seals and postmarks.

The archive also includes a bundle of personal letters relating to business, publishing, Royal Geographical Society etc; John Browns Obituary from 'Gentlemen's Magazine' of May 1861.

A number of letters between John Brown and Elizabeth Weddell and her son they include:

1844 An unfinished letter by Brown regarding Sir Robert Peel's advocacy of a pension for James Weddell's widow Elizabeth.

Franklin Expedition [Letters, Sketch]

A series of original letters [copies] by Robert McCormick dating from 1847-1857 to the Admiralty with replies from Commodore Gordon Bremer and W.A. B. Hamilton [Admiralty Secretary]. The letters put forward passionate arguments, to be allowed to take charge of an expedition to the Arctic in search of Sir John Franklin, and of his rejection by the Admiralty. All on blue folio paper and in McCormicks hand writing.
2. 1857, January 6th : Document with the heading 'Much Laid before the Lord's Commissioners of the Admiralty' written on blue folio paper, 8 leaves, a plea for permission to mount an expedition, laying down his reasons, the area of the search and the various routes. He ends 'The only apology I have to offer for having so elaborately upon the subject of this hapless search must rest upon the deep feeling of interest that have actuated me for years to dispel the mystery which hangs over it. It is now ten years since I laid before the board of Admiralty my first plan of search...'...The greatest proof I can give of my devotion to their noble cause is the offer of my services to conduct it...R.

3. Letters [2x] - R.McCormick to John Brown 1857 & 1859

281 OSBORN SHERARD, AND GEORGE F. MCDUGALL [EDIT]

The Illustrated Arctic News

Facsimile of the Illustrated Arctic News, Published on Board HMS Resolute, Capt'n Horatio T. Austin in search of the expedition under Sir John Franklin.

London: Ackermann 15th March 1852. Folio 47.2 x 29.5cms, 4 l., 57pp lithographed throughout, numerous illustrations, several coloured including title page vignette, one full page printed in colours. First section loose and edges frayed, tear across title page [no losses] some fingermarks and light browning, contents complete. Original publisher's blue pictorial cloth with gilt, covers worn spine ends, edge wear.

The original Illustrated Arctic News was handwritten and circulated on board the Resolute when it wintered on Griffiths Island in Barrow, in 1850, during the Franklin search expedition under Captain Austin. It was originally issued on five separate occasions, between October 1850 and March 1851, February omitted. The format follows the style of the London Illustrated News and includes newsworthy articles, poems and announcements, mostly written in fine scripts. On their return to England this facsimile was printed. There are many small vignettes and attractive views in the text, some coloured as well as one full page chromolithograph entitled 'Grand Ball Masque, H.M.S. Resolute, Dec 5, 1850'. The papers provide an insight into the activities organized to maintain morale during the long Arctic winter.

Conditions of Sale

ART + OBJECT

Please note: it is assumed that all bidders at auction have read and agreed to the conditions described on this page. ART+OBJECT directors are available during the auction viewing to clarify any questions you may have.

1.

Registration: Only registered bidders may bid at auction. You are required to complete a bidding card or absentee bidding form prior to the auction giving your correct name, address and telephone contact + supplementary information such as email addresses that you may wish to supply to ART+OBJECT

2.

Bidding: The highest bidder will be the purchaser subject to the auctioneer accepting the winning bid and any vendor's reserve having been reached. The auctioneer has the right to refuse any bid. If this takes place or in the event of a dispute the auctioneer may call for bids at the previous lowest bid and proceed from this point. Bids advance at sums decreed by the auctioneer unless signaled otherwise by the auctioneer. No bids may be retracted. The auctioneer retains the right to bid on behalf of the vendor up to the reserve figure.

3.

Reserve: Lots are offered and sold subject to the vendor's reserve price being met.

4.

Lots offered and sold as described and viewed: ART+OBJECT makes all attempts to accurately describe and catalogue lots offered for sale. Notwithstanding this neither the vendor nor ART+OBJECT accepts any liability for errors of description or faults and imperfections whether described in writing or verbally. This applies to questions of authenticity and quality of the item. Buyers are deemed to have inspected the item thoroughly and proceed on their own judgment. The act of bidding is agreed by the buyer to be an indication that they are satisfied on all counts regarding condition and authenticity.

Buyers premium: The purchaser by bidding acknowledges their acceptance of a buyers premium of 18.5% plus GST on the premium to be added to the hammer price in the event of a successful sale at auction. Please consult the relevant auction catalogue to confirm the premium for each sale.

6.

ART+OBJECT is an agent for a vendor: A+O has the right to conduct the sale of an item on behalf of a vendor. This may include withdrawing an item from sale for any reason.

7.

Payment: Successful bidders are required to make full payment immediately post sale – being either the day of the sale or the following day. If for any reason payment is delayed then a 20% deposit is required immediately and the balance to 100% required within 3 working days of the sale date. Payment can be made by Eftpos, bank cheque or cash. Cheques must be cleared before items are available for collection. Credit cards are not accepted.

Failure to make payment: If a purchaser fails to make payment as outlined in point 7 above ART+OBJECT may without any advice to the purchaser exercise its right to: a) rescind or stop the sale, b) re-offer the lot for sale to an underbidder or at auction. ART+OBJECT reserves the right to pursue the purchaser for any difference in sale proceeds if this course of action is chosen, c) to pursue legal remedy for breach of contract.

Collection of goods: Purchased items are to be removed from ART+OBJECT premises immediately after payment or clearance of cheques. Absentee bidders must make provision for the uplifting of purchased items (see instructions on the facing page)

10.

Bidders obligations: The act of bidding means all bidders acknowledge that they are personally responsible for payment if they are the successful bidder. This includes all registered absentee or telephone bidders. Bidders acting as an agent for a third party must obtain written authority from ART+OBJECT and provide written instructions from any represented party and their express commitment to pay all funds relating to a successful bid by their nominated agent.

Bids under reserve & highest subject bids:

When the highest bid is below the vendor's reserve this work may be announced by the auctioneer as sold 'subject to vendor's authority' or some similar phrase. The effect of this announcement is to signify that the highest bidder will be the purchaser at the bid price if the vendor accepts this price. If this highest bid is accepted then the purchaser has entered a contract to purchase the item at the bid price plus any relevant buyers premium.

Important advice for buyers

The following information does not form part of the conditions of sale, however buyers, particularly first time bidders are recommended to read these notes.

Bidding at auction:

Please ensure your instructions to the auctioneer are clear and easily understood. It is well to understand that during a busy sale with multiple bidders the auctioneer may not be able to see all bids at all times. It is recommended that you raise your bidding number clearly and without hesitation. If your bid is made in error or you have misunderstood the bidding level please advise the auctioneer immediately of your error – prior to the hammer falling. Please note that if you have made a bid and the hammer has fallen and you are the highest bidder you have entered a binding contract to purchase an item at the bid price. New bidders in particular are advised to make themselves known to the sale auctioneer who will assist you with any questions about the conduct of the auction.

B.

Absentee bidding: ART+OBJECT welcomes absentee bids once the necessary authority has been completed and lodged with ART+OBJECT. A+O will do all it can to ensure bids are lodged on your behalf but accepts no liability for failure to carry out these bids. See the Absentee bidding form in this catalogue for information on lodging absentee bids. These are accepted up to 2 hours prior to the published auction commencement.

C.

Telephone bids: The same conditions apply to telephone bids. It is highly preferable to bid over a landline as the vagaries of cellphone connections may result in disappointment. You will be telephoned prior to your indicated lot arising in the catalogue order. If the phone is engaged or connection impossible the sale will proceed without your bidding. At times during an auction the bidding can be frenetic so you need to be sure you give clear instructions to the person executing your bids. The auctioneer will endeavour to cater to the requirements of phone bidders but cannot wait for a phone bid so your prompt participation is requested.

D.

New Zealand dollars: All estimates in this catalogue are in New Zealand dollars. The amount to be paid by successful bidders on the payment date is the New Zealand dollar amount stated on the purchaser invoice. Exchange rate variations are at the risk of the purchaser.
