Art+Object are delighted to announce the auction of The Christopher Parr Collection, one of the finest collections of early New Zealand printed material in private hands.

Christopher has been collecting since he was 16 years old and his grandfather Sir James Parr, was four times mayor of Auckland and New Zealand High Commissioner to the United Kingdom. Christopher's interest in the History of Auckland and the far North were influenced by his long-standing family associations.

Christopher was Chairman of the Auckland Public Library Trust and took a keen and active interest in the Sir George Grey Special Collections. He also assisted in the compilation of the Turnbull Library Bibliography Books in Maori, providing information and giving them access to unique material from his collection. He also wrote several papers on Maori language and literacy for the Journal of the Polynesian Society.

Over a lifetime of collecting he has accumulated this collection of rare and early New Zealand documents, Maori proclamations, printings and books of National importance, many of which are genuinely irreplaceable. This auction grants collectors the opportunity to acquire material unlikely to ever be offered on the market again.

Auction highlights include:

- Rare New Zealand Proclamations relating to The Treaty of Waitangi, some of which were William Colenso's personal copies.
- A collection of important early New Zealand newspapers including the rare Gazette Extraordinary, New Zealand No.1. accompanied with an original letter from William Colenso to Captain Hobson.
- New Testament – Ko te Rongo Pai [The Gospel According to St Luke]. Paihia 1835. Inscribed by William Colenso.
- Thomas Kendall – A Grammar and Vocabulary of the Language of New Zealand. London 1820. This is the Rangihoua Mission School copy inscribed Rangihoua School 1826, and in the original rough cloth binding. Another copy originally belonging to Bishop Selwyn.
- William Colenso – Report of the Formation and Establishment of the New Zealand Temperance Society. Paihia 1836. The first book in English ever printed in New Zealand.
- Watercolours by Joseph Jenner Merrett, Horatio Gordon Robley and John Kinder.
- John Arrowsmith - map of Auckland Harbour and City, 1842.
- Numerous printings from the Wesleyan, Catholic, Paihia and St Johns presses.

- 96 AUCKLAND TIMES.
'Valuti in Speculum',
 As Conscience true the Glass no Favour Shows. 1842 - 1846.
 One of the great rarities of New Zealand newspaper history. Issued weekly, first published on 29th August 1842 by the owner and editor Henry Falwasser.
 A rare run of 13 numbers from July 5th 1845 to January 17th 1846 of Volume 3. Folio, housed in custom made blue linen book box. Loosely enclosed a note from Christopher Parr; 'Enclosed 13 numbers of which all but 4 appear to be unrepresented in Dr Harvey, Union List of NZ Newspapers 1987....' Surviving copies of 'The Times' are rare in isolated numbers.
At the time the sole printing press in Auckland was owned by the Government on which Falwasser was allowed to print the first issues. The 9th issue was suppressed after he had fallen foul of the authorities. In the true spirit of the free press he cobbled together a set of mismatched type and with the aid of a clothes mangle produced about thirty successive issues on coarse paper. A man of action he fought a duel with Lieutenant George Phillpotts who dismissed the paper 'as a rag'. No blood was spilt, Phillpotts lost a button on his uniform and Falwasser got a bullet through his coat tail.

- 106 NEW ZEALAND'S FOUNDATION NEWSPAPERS, THE NEW ZEALAND GAZETTE WELLINGTON SPECTATOR;
The New Zealand Spectator and Cook's Strait Guardian 1839 - 1848.
The New Zealand Gazette: Vol.1. [Second Edition] Nos 6 & 13, September 1839 - July 4 1840. Housed in a custom made blue linen book case.
The first New Zealand newspaper edited by Samuel Revans was published in London on 21 August 1839 prior to the departure of the first emigrant ships on the 18th of December, to meet demand a second impression was printed on 6th September. Revans sailed on the 'Adelaide' that arrived at Petone on 7 March 1840, where the town of Britannia was being laid out. It took time for the press to be assembled and the second issue No 2. was not printed until April 18, 1840. After two months the settlement moved from Petone to Lambton harbour, its name was changed to Wellington, and Revans altered his title to 'New Zealand Gazette and Wellington Spectator'. Vol.2. Nos 68-70, 72, 76, 91, 101-104 [2 copies], 119, 120; Vol.4. Supplement, April 1, Nos 267, 274, 279, November 1841 to September 1843. The Gazette quietly folded and was succeeded [12 October 1844] by 'The New Zealand Spectator and Cook's Strait Guardian'. A long run from Volume 2 to Volume 5, 1845 - 1848.
Hocken 74 [For further information re numbers contact A + O]
The publication of No 2 of the New Zealand Gazette at Petone preceded by two months the first paper at the Bay of Islands and thus fully established Revan's status as the father of the New Zealand press. Visitors to Port Nicholson remarked on the Gazettes 'virulent abuse of Auckland and the Governor, combined with a slavish reverence of the New Zealand Company'.

- 107 TE PIHOIHOI MOKEMOKE, [5 ISSUES]
'A sparrow alone on the rooftop'
A government supported newspaper. Te pihohoi mokemoke i runga i te tuanui. No.1. Pepuere. 1863. Otawhao: [i.e. Te Awamutu] 1863. Four issues 18p. No.1. 2nd Feb 1863 to No.4. 9th March 1863. Photographic copy of issue No.5. which was partly printed but not published.
The paper was produced by John Gorst, Civil Commissioner of the Waikato at the Otawhao mission School at Te Awamutu, it was supported by the government to counteract the Ngaruawahia Kingitanga paper 'Te Hokioi'. On 24 March 1863 when the fifth issue was being printed a war party under Rewi Maniapoto seized the press and flung it into the Waikato river bringing production to an abrupt end. Only two copies in variant forms of Issue No. 5. are known to have survived, in the Grey Collection and the Hocken Library. Although short lived this is one of the most important and rare Maori newspapers, it is said the Maori raiders acted with great chivalry.

172 TITOKORWARU'S WAR 1868, [LETTER]

William Fox to Colonel Rookes

6p signed letter, Westoe, Tutuenui, Dec 4th 1868. 'The Government is determined to reduce the Middle Island Militia establishments without the arms we require to protect ourselves from the cannibal foe. We can put 100 men into the saddle & all we have to arm them with are long Enfields !!! What we want is swords & breech loaders.' The report I have sent Mrs Fox into town is not true. We have had our share of alarms, but Rangitikei has never given way to panic as some of the whisky drinking communities not far off have done!.

Includes Titokawaru's advance as far as Kai Iwi north of Wanganui, the location of redoubts in the Rangitikei district & the local personalities.

Covers a tense period in 1868. A frank commentary, rich in detail. In the 1860's Colonel Rookes commanded the volunteer cavalry from the Rangitikei, Turakina and Wanganui districts.

The British Resident at New Zealand,

to his Britannic Majesty's Subjects, who are Residing and Trading in New Zealand.
'The British Resident announces to his Countrymen that he has received from a person who styles himself 'Charles Baron de Theirry, Sovereign Chief of New Zealand and King of Nuhuheva', one of the Marquesas Islands, a formal declaration of his intention to establish in his own Person an Independent Sovereignty in this Country...'
'...His intention is founded upon an alleged invitation given to him in England by Shungie and other Chiefs, none of whom as individuals had any right to the Sovereignty of the Country, possessed no authority to convey a right of Sovereignty to another. Also upon an alleged purchase made for him in 1822 by Mr Kendall, of Three Districts on the Hokianga River Three Chiefs who had only partial property in these districts, now settled by British Subjects by Virtue of Purchase from the rightful Proprietors ...' Six paragraphs in all.
Busby is sure that his countrymen will pay no attention to the ambitious projects of any adventurer. 'The British Resident will take immediate steps for calling together the Native Chiefs, in order to inform them of this proposed attempt upon their Independence...'

205 PROCLAMATION, [2 XS]

Hobson's Declaration of Sovereignty

The rare first printing of Hobson's Declaration of Sovereignty over the Islands of New Zealand, that incorrectly defines the northern limits of the country as latitude North instead of South.

Asserts Sovereign rights over the Islands of New Zealand.

In the Name of Her Majesty Victoria, Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland. By William Hobson, Esquire, a Captain in the Royal Navy, Lientenant Governor in New Zealand.

Whereas I have it in Command from Her Majesty Queen Victoria

... to assert the Sovereign Rights of Her Majesty over the Southern Islands of New Zealand commonly called 'The Middle Island' and 'Stewart's Island' and also the Island commonly called 'The Northern Island', the same having been ceded in Sovereignty to Her Majesty.

[Signed] William Hobson, Lieutenant Governor. [Signed] Willoughby Shortland, Colonial Secretary.

There were two errors in the text. One that could have seriously effected the claim to 'the full sovereignty of the Islands of New Zealand. The northern boundary is wrongly defined as extending from 34 30' north latitude instead of the south latitude. Hobson is referred to as 'Governor in New Zealand' rather than 'of'. Corrected in manuscript by Colenso. The errors were corrected by an amended proclamation bearing the same date [21 May 1840] of which Colenso printed 100 copies on 16 June 1840.

Broadsheet, Dated 21 May 1840. 325 x 225mm, Britannia watermark, old file hole effecting letter P, slight edge wear. 100 copies printed by Colenso.

Imprint, Paihia: Printed at the Press of the Church Missionary Society..

Until recently no copy was thought to have survived. It was one of the documents suppressed from the 1890 edition of Colenso's 'The Authentic and Genuine History of the Signing of the Treaty of Waitangi'.

Bagnall 4041, Addenda 4141a, p1166.

2. Letter from Willoughby Shortland to William Colenso regarding the printing of the Declaration of Sovereignty over the Islands of New Zealand.

1p hand written letter from Willoughby Shortland to William Colenso dated Paihia May 22, 1840, asks Colenso to print some copies of the Proclamation asserting sovereign rights over the Islands of New Zealand immediately. Letter folded and addressed to 'Mr Colenso. Paihia, My Dear Sir, I start for Port Nicholson almost immediately - it will be necessary to take with me the accomg Book Materials. You will have the goodness to print some copies of each as soon as possible. The Lieut. Gov, has left the Native names of the Islands for you to fill in as he cannot remember them...' Colenso chose to use the English names for the two 'main islands' rather than the Maori names Hobson intended he should use. It is felt that Shortland's hasty instructions resulted in the most important mistake in Shortland's text where the northern limits of the country are defined as latitude North instead of South. Ref. Bagnall 4041

Willoughby Shortland accompanied Hobson to New Zealand where he became Police Magistrate and later in 1843, Colonial Secretary. Self important and overbearing he was reputed to be behind the suppression of the anti government New Zealand Advertiser & Bay of Islands Gazette.

Gazette Extraordinary, New Zealand. No 1.

December 30th, 1840. Paihia, Printed at the Press of the Church Missionary Society. The publication at Kororareka on 15 June 1840 of The New Zealand Advertiser and Bay of Islands Gazette enabled Lieutenant Governor Hobson to publish his notices and proclamations in that paper. However the paper opposed his policies and the uncompromising editor refused the Government access to its columns. Hobson had no alternative but to seek the aid of William Colenso and the Paihia Missionary Press. Accordingly the first New Zealand Government publication appeared under the title 'Gazette Extrordinary', New Zealand No.1. William Colenso was not under bond in accordance with British law to print official notices, and to get round this problem a notice was inserted to the effect that all communications inserted therein were to be deemed official, in order as Hobson remarked 'that no legal quibble may defeat my desire to forward the public welfare of the Government'. Signature of E.L. Godfrey on top margin. Single leaf, lightly browned, small paper loss to top right margin. Probably the earliest recorded conflict between press and the Government in New Zealand. An example of the rare first issue of the New Zealand Gazette. Includes notices regarding the boundaries of the new town of Auckland and call for tenders for the erection of Public Offices. The establishment of the New Zealand Land Commission to investigate land claims by James Busby, John Montefiore. All notices dated December 9th-29th Government House, Russell.

Signature of E.L. Godfrey on top margin. Colonel Godfrey a correspondent of Colenso's was one of three Land Claim Commissioners appointed by Governor Hobson on 29th Dec 1840. The notice of Godfrey's appointment appears on title page.

Warrior Chieftains of new Zealand.

An important group, the prominent Northland chiefs, Hone Heke, his wife Harriet and Kawiti. Unsigned watercolour on paper heightened with Chinese white, 280 x 225 [framed].

Merrett arrived in New Zealand in the late 1830s. In the 1840s he practiced in Auckland as a surveyor, interpreter and was married to a Maori wife. His success as an artist was guaranteed when he enjoyed the patronage of Sir George Grey during his first term as Governor from 1845-1853. The artists watercolours are noted for the accuracy of the costume and moko. His work is represented in the Grey Collection, in the British Library, The Turnbull Library. A typed label on the reverse signed by art historian and Alexander Turnbull Library expert Anthony Murray Oliver authenticates the work. Group studies of prominent Maoris by Merrett are rare. A related work by Merrett is in the 'Fletcher Trust Collection'.

A series of 15 images relating to the Maori anti conscription movement in action in and around Mercer in 1916-1917. The H.S. Valentine family the creators of the album & likely photographers are shown to be on sympathetic terms with Te Puea, Tonga, Mahutu and other prominent Maori leaders.

Vivid scenes of protest marches, arrests and cordial inter action between the Maoris and Police on the streets of Mercer in 1916-1917. Images include: 'Te Puea, & (Constable) W.J. Taylor' & with Mrs H.S. Valentine, Sgt Cowan, the Mercer Meeting house 1917. Also of Maori activists Jack Potapu, Ginger Matepo', 'Tonga Mahutu ,Wana Herangi', 'Matepo', Te Puea Herangi 1883-1952, a vigorous supporter of the Waikato's antigovernment stance on conscription. She provided a refuge on her dairy farm at Maungatawhiri in the South Auckland for Maori men who refused to be conscripted. The Valentine's were a Mercer based family and the owners of 'Surrey Farm, Maungatawhiri'.

ART + OBJECT

Please note: it is assumed that all bidders at auction have read and agreed to the conditions described on this page. ART+OBJECT directors are available during the auction viewing to clarify any questions you may have.

1.

Registration: Only registered bidders may bid at auction. You are required to complete a bidding card or absentee bidding form prior to the auction giving your correct name, address and telephone contact + supplementary information such as email addresses that you may wish to supply to ART+OBJECT

2.

Bidding: The highest bidder will be the purchaser subject to the auctioneer accepting the winning bid and any vendor's reserve having been reached. The auctioneer has the right to refuse any bid. If this takes place or in the event of a dispute the auctioneer may call for bids at the previous lowest bid and proceed from this point. Bids advance at sums decreed by the auctioneer unless signaled otherwise by the auctioneer. No bids may be retracted. The auctioneer retains the right to bid on behalf of the vendor up to the reserve figure.

3.

Reserve: Lots are offered and sold subject to the vendor's reserve price being met.

4.

Lots offered and sold as described and viewed: ART+OBJECT makes all attempts to accurately describe and catalogue lots offered for sale. Notwithstanding this neither the vendor nor ART+OBJECT accepts any liability for errors of description or faults and imperfections whether described in writing or verbally. This applies to questions of authenticity and quality of the item. Buyers are deemed to have inspected the item thoroughly and proceed on their own judgment. The act of bidding is agreed by the buyer to be an indication that they are satisfied on all counts regarding condition and authenticity.

5.

Buyers premium: The purchaser by bidding acknowledges their acceptance of a buyers premium of 20% plus GST on the premium to be added to the hammer price in the event of a successful sale at auction. Please consult the relevant auction catalogue to confirm the premium for each sale.

6.

ART+OBJECT is an agent for a vendor: A+O has the right to conduct the sale of an item on behalf of a vendor. This may include withdrawing an item from sale for any reason.

7.

Payment: Successful bidders are required to make full payment immediately post sale – being either the day of the sale or the following day. If for any reason payment is delayed then a 20% deposit is required immediately and the balance to 100% required within 3 working days of the sale date. Payment can be made by Eftpos, bank cheque or cash. Cheques must be cleared before items are available for collection. Credit cards are not accepted.

8.

Failure to make payment: If a purchaser fails to make payment as outlined in point 7 above ART+OBJECT may without any advice to the purchaser exercise its right to: a) rescind or stop the sale, b) re-offer the lot for sale to an underbidder or at auction. ART+OBJECT reserves the right to pursue the purchaser for any difference in sale proceeds if this course of action is chosen, c) to pursue legal remedy for breach of contract.

9.

Collection of goods: Purchased items are to be removed from ART+OBJECT premises immediately after payment or clearance of cheques. Absentee bidders must make provision for the uplifting of purchased items (see instructions on the facing page) 10.

Bidders obligations: The act of bidding means all bidders acknowledge that they are personally responsible for payment if they are the successful bidder. This includes all registered absentee or telephone bidders. Bidders acting as an agent for a third party must obtain written authority from ART+OBJECT and provide written instructions from any represented party and their express commitment to pay all funds relating to a successful bid by their nominated agent.

11.

Bids under reserve & highest subject bids:

When the highest bid is below the vendor's reserve this work may be announced by the auctioneer as sold 'subject to vendor's authority' or some similar phrase. The effect of this announcement is to signify that the highest bidder will be the purchaser at the bid price if the vendor accepts this price. If this highest bid is accepted then the purchaser has entered a contract to purchase the item at the bid price plus any relevant buyers premium.

Important advice for buyers

The following information does not form part of the conditions of sale, however buyers, particularly first time bidders are recommended to read these notes.

Bidding at auction:

Please ensure your instructions to the auctioneer are clear and easily understood. It is well to understand that during a busy sale with multiple bidders the auctioneer may not be able to see all bids at all times. It is recommended that you raise your bidding number clearly and without hesitation. If your bid is made in error or you have misunderstood the bidding level please advise the auctioneer immediately of your error – prior to the hammer falling. Please note that if you have made a bid and the hammer has fallen and you are the highest bidder you have entered a binding contract to purchase an item at the bid price. New bidders in particular are advised to make themselves known to the sale auctioneer who will assist you with any questions about the conduct of the auction.

B.

Absentee bidding: ART+OBJECT welcomes absentee bids once the necessary authority has been completed and lodged with ART+OBJECT. A+O will do all it can to ensure bids are lodged on your behalf but accepts no liability for failure to carry out these bids. See the Absentee bidding form in this catalogue for information on lodging absentee bids. These are accepted up to 2 hours prior to the published auction commencement.

C.

Telephone bids: The same conditions apply to telephone bids. It is highly preferable to bid over a landline as the vagaries of cellphone connections may result in disappointment. You will be telephoned prior to your indicated lot arising in the catalogue order. If the phone is engaged or connection impossible the sale will proceed without your bidding. At times during an auction the bidding can be frenetic so you need to be sure you give clear instructions to the person executing your bids. The auctioneer will endeavour to cater to the requirements of phone bidders but cannot wait for a phone bid so your prompt participation is requested.

D.

New Zealand dollars: All estimates in this catalogue are in New Zealand dollars. The amount to be paid by successful bidders on the payment date is the New Zealand dollar amount stated on the purchaser invoice. Exchange rate variations are at the risk of the purchaser.
