Tuesday 7 April - 9.00am - 5.00pm

Lot 413

Art+Object's Rare Book Department opens in 2020 with a superb collection which includes the library of Peter Stratford, well known collector, researcher and historian. Peter has decided that the time has come to pass on his collection of books, manuscripts and documents to a new generation of collectors.

This is a large and varied sale; one of the major items to go under the hammer is the manuscript diary of Henry Nottidge Moseley, naturalist from the famous 1873-1876 journey of HMS Challenger, described at the time "as the greatest advance in the knowledge of our planet since the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries". Conducted just thirteen years after Darwin's Origin of Species, Challenger was charged with the task of constructing a fossil record that would test the new theory of evolution. The Challenger was to invent oceanography and was a forerunner of NASA's Challenger Space Shuttle.

Another important diary in the sale is the manuscript journal of Master Mariner Captain Thomas Capel Tilly, R.N. Tilly served in the Crimea and was Agent for the Melanesian Mission in Auckland in the late 19th century.

Another item of importance is the Manuscript Journal of John Anstis [1699-1744] 'Heraldic Emblems M-S'.

The sale also includes a wide variety of early New Zealand first editions, photographs, maps, manuscripts, letters and antiquarian books.

Among a large selection of early Maori printings are an early variant copy of New Zealand's founding document, Treaty of Waitangi in Maori 'Ko Wikitoria Kuini o Ingarani I tana...' and a Second edition of the 1835 Declaration of Independence signed by Maori chiefs.

Remarks on Transportation and on a Recent

Defence of the System; in a Second Letter to Earl Grey. London: B. Fellowes 1834. [4]p, 172p. 230mm, original printers boards, front board almost detached, paper title label.

Richard Whately was an enthusiastic agitator against transportation (his influential 1832 pamphlet Thoughts on Secondary Punishments led in part to the House of Commons select committee inquiry) this was founded on his belief that punishment and effective colonization were contradictory aims. Being an ardent penal reformer, he believed that prisoners should know the real meaning of their sentences and was therefore a supporter of certain sentences being irremissible.

371 MANUSCRIPT LETTERS, [EIGHT LETTERS]

Dennis Wheatley to Arthur G. Smith

Seven letters to Arthur G. Smith Manager of Retail Department, Whitcombe and Tombs, Dunedin, New Zealand from Dennis Wheatley.

The first letter on letterhead of Justerini & Brooks Ltd [the business owned by Wheatley's family], handwritten address, 48 Queen's Gate S.W. 7 April 26th 33. A 4pp letter written soon after the publication of his first book "The Forbidden Territory", Dear Mr Smith, '.... for a first effort the book really has gone remarkably well - seven time reprinted in seven weeks - and still going strong .... I have sold the film rights to Alfred Hitchcock who is certainly the greatest producer on this side of the Atlantic, and he intends to make three versions, English, French and German. You can imagine, I am sure what tremendous fun it is for a beginner like myself, and I think we can fairly say that it supports your own kind opinion...'. He goes on to say he has retained an interest in the family business '... I know how hard it is in these days of the great depression to sell anything which is not an absolute necessity...'. The second letter on letterhead, 48, Queens Gate. S.W. 7. Sept 29th 33. A long and chatty letter on 7 l., [14pp] of note paper, Dear Mr Smith, '... It is interesting and delightful to me to think that through writing a thriller I should have made a good friend like yourself right at the other end of the world...' he has been able to 'dig' out a copy of the 1st edition of 'The Forbidden Territory' and he says that although it is hardly likely that thrillers such as I write will ever become of any particular value other than a sentimental one, I thought you might like to have it.

Discussed in depth, editions, numbers printed, illustrator Franck C. Pape, pricing structures of books, his publisher, Hutchinsons, and his love of travel. He writes of his involvement in the wine trade and how it has suddenly sprung into an extraordinary state of activity on the probability of the United States going officially wet before Christmas.

The third Handwritten on blue paper with letterhead, Dennis Wheatley, 48 Queens Gate, S.W.7 August 20th '34. Another long and chatty letter 7 l., [14pp] of note paper. Dear Arthur Smith, he apologises for delay in replying, due to his wife's illness and a holiday they took to South Africa where he worked on 'The Devil Rides Out' which was published in serial in the Daily Mail and the effects of the immense advertising value, having to get another book out quickly and writing in isolation 'The Fabulous Valley'. His pleasure in Arthur Smith's enjoyment of 'Old Rowley' and agreeing with him that it was his best literary effort so far. The remaining letters all addressed to Dear Arthur Smith, are lengthy and dated August 20th 34 to 19th May 1937 the last two are typescript and signed in pen, they are all written in the same friendly and chatty manner as to a friend and they discuss in detail and chronological order, his books and their publication, the problems involved, editions, numbers printed, his wife's writing and her books.

The final two letters are typescript and signed in pen Dennis Wheatley.

Also included - A handwritten letter from Joan Wheatley to Mrs Smith date 19.2.36 on letterhead 8 St John's Wood Park, NW 8. Sending a copy of her new novel "Better to Marry" 'I hope the female readers of Dunedin will become as "Chaucer Conscious" as they are "Wheatley Conscious" ...' 2pp on folded note paper.

A long, fascinating and valuable archive of letters written in the early days of his writing career, to a book retailer in New Zealand who had become a close friend and confidante of the well known author.

372 MOSELEY, HENRY NOTTIDGE

Manuscript Diary - H.M. S. Challenger

A manuscript diary compiled by H. N. Moseley [1844-1891], naturalist aboard H.M. S. Challenger, approximately 424 handwritten pages with many extra pages, notes, maps and sketches tipped in and loosely enclosed.

Commencing on 8th February the journal finishes in 1876.

It commences at Tenerife 'from Feb 8th to 14 I visited the peak and made an excursion with Buchanan, Murray and Lord Campbell up to a height of 9000 feet ...'

'14th weighed anchor and made off across the Atlantic....' The diary is a record of information regarding the day to day scientific research he is engaged in including deep sea dredging, trawling and water depths, water sampling and temperatures, with detailed information regarding their finds and observations and with descriptions of marine and bird life encountered on the voyage. When on land, recording and engaging in the collection of plants, fossils and specimens. 'April 4. Bermuda - During our two day stay I was engaged almost constantly in the collection of plants for Kew'. Included are numerous hand drawn maps, ink illustrations of rock formations, one of a large sea creature [?shark or whale] another which features in 'Notes by a Naturalist on the "Challenger"', a single leaf illustrated and inscribed 'and this is of a white man. I think Sir John Lubbock says that the N American Indians distinguish a white by putting a tall hat to him. Such a form of head gear must of course be astonishing to a savage at first'. On the same leaf 'Near one of the caves on a flat slab of stone is a figure of a kangaroo cut out in the stone...'

Henry Nottidge Moseley was awarded the Royal Society's Royal Medal in 1887. Rebacked with black leather with the original green cloth boards and brass lock.

The circumnavigation of the screw corvette HMS Challenger has been described as marking the birth of modern oceanography. Conducted just 13 years after Charles Darwin's 'Origin of the Species', the Challenger was tasked with constructing a fossil record that would test the new theory of evolution. It was the earliest research ship completely dedicated to oceanography and for the first time detailed information from the depths of the ocean was collected and recorded.

The Diary is to be sold with two books titled 'Varia, H.N. Mosely' and 'Botany HMS Challenger' both are signed and notated by Moseley and contain published papers and writings which have been bound into qtr and half leather bindings. Also with 'Notes by a Naturalist on the "Challenger". London 1878. With the name Emily Hardy on fly leaf.

Also 3 letters - one to his mother describing his trip to Japan and his love of the country. [1875] and 2 to Dr Rolleston 1873, all written from the Challenger. Another letter to him from Mr Tizard, Hydrographic Department

In 2009 a manuscript logbook, HMS Challenger of Lieutenant Arthur Bromley sold for 19,200 pounds sterling.

373 SANDWICH ISLANDS, [HAWAII]

Six early 19th Century Manuscript Letters

1. Jeremiah Evarts to Henry De Koven - Single page manuscript letter dated 'Boston, June 30, 1822.

He thanks De Koven for supplying Tahitian text of John's Gospel via W. Woodridge and requesting information on the newly formed Sandwich Island Mission.

A letter between two men of power & privilege who came from two of Americas leading families.

Folded leaf, with address Paid & Date stamps and red wax closure seal.

2. Henry De Koven to Jeremiah Evarts - Four page manuscript letter dated 'Middletown July 12th 1823. In response to Evarts previous letter which he acknowledges, it gives several pages of unique, insight into the daily on-goings and events at the Sandwich Island Mission. Notables such as Hiram Bingham and the Rev William Ellis are spoken of along with Mrs Bingham, Mr Bennet Esq [lay preacher] and the Rev Daniel Tyerman. Also touches on infanticide, Ellis' command of the native language and general law-making for the natives in Hawaii at that time.

Four foolscap pages of important historical text. Light fold-marks else clean and clear.

3. Hollingworth Magniac [under Power of attorney for Charles Magniac] to His Majesty the King of the Sandwich Islands [Kamekameha 2nd]. Folded foolscap leaf with a two page manuscript letter dated 'Canton 10th March 1820'. The text recalls the cost borne by Magniac from a previous voyage in 1817 to Canton by the then King's [Kamekameha 1st] brig 'Cahoomanu', Captain Adams, with a cargo of sandalwood. The letter continues with Magniac justifying the sum owed to him and informing him that Captain William H. Davis [bearer of this letter], has full powers to receive such payment. Magniac concludes by offering the King his services should he wish such in Canton. History shows that his due debt was not repaid at the time and that his letter was obviously returned to Davis/Magniac, also borne out by the following covenant. An extremely rare and important letter with the watermark of J. Rump 1818, written in copperplate script.

4. Printed form of Power of Attorney with details and instructions in original manuscript dated 10th March 1920 from Hollingworth Magniac [under P.O.A. for Charles Magniac] giving Captain William H. Davis the right to obtain monies owed to the Magniacs by 'His Majesty the King of the Sandwich Islands or his Successor, also the Interest already due and still accumulating thereon'. Signed by three Witnesses and by H. Magniac for Charles Magniac. On the verso of the document [Power of Attorney] a one page manuscript letter dated 'Island of Waihaai one of the Sandwich Islands August 9th 1822' from Capt Davis to Charle Magniac. Text confirms the debt due has been collected. It is unclear whether Davis or Henry De Koven collected such, but Davis asks Magniac to pay De Koven the same commission that was due to him.

A cornerstone document, foolscap Power of Attorney with manuscript insertions and a manuscript letter written on the last page. Irrefutable evidence of the tie-up between Charle Magniac and Co, De Koven, Capt Davis and trade with the King of the Sandwich Islands. The document is split along the centre fold, no loss of text, clear and decipherable.

5. Hutton Brown to Henry L. De Koven - single page manuscript letter dated 'New York 10 May 1819. Complete but difficult to decipher, with postal address Paid and Date stamps and red-wax seal. 4p text on 2 l.,

6. Note on third of foolscap page of manuscript, financial instructions concerning Magniac Co.

434 GRANT, J.G.S.

Essays

A bound volumes of 22 pamphlets, the essays of J.G.S Grant, 210mmall with their original paper covers. bound into half leather with cloth boards.
Grant was born in Scotland, in the early 1830's he emigrated to Melbourne and from there came to NZ in 1855 on the Gil Blas believing he had been promised the rectorship of the projected Otago high school. To his intense dismay, the authorities insisted that no promise of preferment had been made to Grant and another person was appointed rector.
He was willing to lecture on virtually any subject to any kind of audience, some of his efforts were billed as sermons, and he offered himself as an 'Independent' preacher in opposition to the Presbyterian establishment, Hocken, who heard him speak, did not find his style captivating. Grant sold his pamphlets by hawking them about the streets and so became known to later generations of citizens. He became a figure of fun and he died in poverty in Dunedin on 27 February 1902.

CONDITIONS OF SALE

art+object

Please note: it is assumed that all bidders at auction have read and agreed to the conditions described on this page. Art+Object directors are available during the auction viewing to clarify any questions you may have.

1. Registration: Only registered bidders may bid at auction. You are required to complete a bidding card or absentee bidding form prior to the auction giving your correct name, address and telephone contact and supplementary information such as email addresses that you may wish to supply to Art+Object.
2. Bidding: The highest bidder will be the purchaser subject to the auctioneer accepting the winning bid and any vendor's reserve having been reached. The auctioneer has the right to refuse any bid. If this takes place or in the event of a dispute the auctioneer may call for bids at the previous lowest bid and proceed from this point. Bids advance at sums decreed by the auctioneer unless signaled otherwise by the auctioneer. No bids may be retracted. The auctioneer retains the right to bid on behalf of the vendor up to the reserve figure.
3. Reserve: Lots are offered and sold subject to the vendor's reserve price being met.
4. Lots offered and sold as described and viewed: Art+Object makes all attempts to accurately describe and catalogue lots offered for sale. Notwithstanding this neither the vendor nor Art+Object accepts any liability for errors of description or faults and imperfections whether described in writing or verbally. This applies to questions of authenticity and quality of the item. Buyers are deemed to have inspected the item thoroughly and proceed on their own judgment. The act of bidding is agreed by the buyer to be an indication that they are satisfied on all counts regarding condition and authenticity.
5. Buyers premium: The purchaser by bidding acknowledges their acceptance of a buyers premium of 20% + GST to be added to the hammer price in the event of a successful sale at auction.
6. Art+Object is an agent for a vendor: A+O has the right to conduct the sale of an item on behalf of a vendor. This may include withdrawing an item from sale for any reason.

7. Payment: Successful bidders are required to make full payment immediately post sale – being either the day of the sale or the following day. If for any reason payment is delayed then a 20% deposit is required immediately and the balance to 100% required within 3 working days of the sale date. We accept payment via Eftpos, cash (under $5000.00) and direct credit. Visa and MasterCard credit cards are accepted, however a surcharge of 2.5% will be added. Payments over $10,000.00 must be made by direct credit to our bank account. Our bank details for deposits are 12-3107-0062934-00. Please use your buyer number as transaction reference. Please refer to point 7 of the Conditions of Sale in the catalogue for a detailed description of payment terms.
8. Failure to make payment: If a purchaser fails to make payment as outlined in point 7 above Art+Object may without any advice to the purchaser exercise its right to: a) rescind or stop the sale, b) re offer the lot for sale to an underbidder or at auction. Art+Object reserves the right to pursue the purchaser for any difference in sale proceeds if this course of action is chosen, c) to pursue legal remedy for breach of contract.
9. Collection of goods: Purchased items are to be removed from Art+Object premises immediately after payment or clearance of cheques. Absentee bidders must make provision for the uplifting of purchased items (see instructions on the facing page).
10. Bidders obligations: The act of bidding means all bidders acknowledge that they are personally responsible for payment if they are the successful bidder. This includes all registered absentee or telephone bidders. Bidders acting as an agent for a third party must obtain written authority from Art+Object and provide written instructions from any represented party and their express commitment to pay all funds relating to a successful bid by their nominated agent.
11. Bids under reserve & highest subject bids: When the highest bid is below the vendor's reserve this work may be announced by the auctioneer as sold 'subject to vendor's authority' or some similar phrase. The effect of this announcement is to signify that the highest bidder will be the purchaser at the bid price if the vendor accepts this price. If this highest bid is accepted then the purchaser has entered a contract to purchase the item at the bid price plus any relevant buyers premium.

IMPORTANT ADVICE FOR BUYERS

The following information does not form part of the conditions of sale, however buyers, particularly first time bidders are recommended to read these notes.

A. Bidding at auction: Please ensure your instructions to the auctioneer are clear and easily understood. It is well to understand that during a busy sale with multiple bidders the auctioneer may not be able to see all bids at all times. It is recommended that you raise your bidding number clearly and without hesitation. If your bid is made in error or you have misunderstood the bidding level please advise the auctioneer immediately of your error – prior to the hammer falling. Please note that if you have made a bid and the hammer has fallen and you are the highest bidder you have entered a binding contract to purchase an item at the bid price. New bidders in particular are advised to make themselves known to the sale auctioneer who will assist you with any questions about the conduct of the auction.

B. Absentee bidding: Art+Object welcomes absentee bids once the necessary authority has been completed and lodged with Art+Object. A+O will do all it can to ensure bids are lodged on your behalf but accepts no liability for failure to carry out these bids. See the Absentee bidding form in this catalogue for information on lodging absentee bids. These are accepted up to 2 hours prior to the published auction commencement.

C. Telephone bids: The same conditions apply to telephone bids. It is highly preferable to bid over a landline as the vagaries of cellphone connections may result in disappointment. You will be telephoned prior to your indicated lot arising in the catalogue order. If the phone is engaged or connection impossible the sale will proceed without your bidding. At times during an auction the bidding can be frenetic so you need to be sure you give clear instructions to the person executing your bids. The auctioneer will endeavour to cater to the requirements of phone bidders but cannot wait for a phone bid so your prompt participation is requested.

D. New Zealand dollars: All estimates in this catalogue are in New Zealand dollars. The amount to be paid by successful bidders on the payment date is the New Zealand dollar amount stated on the purchaser invoice. Exchange rate variations are at the risk of the purchaser.
