1100 x 1020 x 850mm
$12 000 - $15 000

The Proust chair is a recognized late 20th Century design classic. Mendini (born 1931) has been described as neo-modern and has designed items for Swatch, Alessi, Phillips and Swarovski. His influence on Italian and European design has been heightened by his directorial roles with magazines such as Casa Bella, MODO and Domus. Mendini was also the founder of the Global Tools group in 1973 and in 1980 he curated the groundbreaking exhibition 'L'oggetto banale' at the Venice Biennale. The Proust chair is held in many well known public collections internationally and an example can be found in the Auckland Museum design collection.
