RARE BOOKS

WEDNESDAY 17 JULY 2013
12.00 MIDDAY

Viewing is on Sunday 14th July
from 11.00am to 3.00pm,
and on Monday and Tuesday
from 9.00am to 5.00pm.

The sale features the research archive of the late Bernard [Bob] Morrison, Bob was an engineer with Air New Zealand and had an interest in New Zealand military history for many years particularly in compiling and researching the Maori Battalion. An important collection of 20th century military history, he compiled the casualties from the Maori Pioneer Battalion, tracing photos and details of every one of the unit's men who died on the battlefields. Bob has recently passed away in Scotland, May 2013

Other major items include a hand written manuscript of Maori legends in the script of Lady Eliza Grey and William Colenso's rare first and second New Testament Printings on the Pihahia Press 1835 (illustrated below).

NOVEMBER CATALOGUE ANNOUNCEMENT

The final Rare Books catalogue for 2013 will take place in November 2013. A+O is pleased to offer the collection of well-known Canterbury bibliophile Dr Roy Taylor Wade. Dr Wade's collection, assembled over a half century includes a large selection of important New Zealand books and many early and rare Canterbury items. A keen hunter, his collection is notable for important hunting and fishing titles.

Further entries are invited.

He assumed office as Governor of NZ on 20 January 1883. The government willingly accepted his offer of advice on harbour defence provision. With the help of an officer of the Royal Engineers, Major Henry Cautley, brought out for the purpose, Jervois visited the ports in question and refined his earlier views, outlining them in an address to the New Zealand Institute in October 1884. In essence Jervois reaffirmed the pre-eminence of heavy guns over new weapons such as the mine and the torpedo, and proposed that New Zealand supplement the ordnance acquired in 1878 with the most modern six-inch and eight-inch guns. These weapons were ordered during another more serious war scare early in 1885. Late in March Jervois convened a meeting at Government House in Wellington which established an emergency defence programme. After the scare subsided Jervois oversaw the permanent fortification of the harbours, his leading role being recognised in the naming of the fort on Lyttelton's Ripapa Island after him...." 182 Manuscript - Maori Legends

GREY, SIR GEORGE & LADY ELIZA

A hand written manuscript of Maori Legends 142p, script on one side only, the contents page is in Sir George Grey's handwriting and the manuscript is in the hand of Lady Eliza Grey. Most probably written during Governor Greys first term as Governor and before the acrimonious breakup of his marriage to Lady Grey. Contents: The Dragon Slayers - How they slew the Dragon Hotupuku [15]p; How they next slew the Dragon Pakehau [9]p; How they then slew the Dragon Kataore [22]p; How Hakauru slew the Dragon Kaiwhare [5]p; Te Naue's Choice [13]p; Te Hukkuti the [?] of the Lake of Tara, [7]p; The Legend of Hinepoupou and of Oiparao; Te Aohuruhuru the young wifes shame; The History of Paoa the ancestor of the Ngatopaoa Tribe.

Provenance - Purchased by Esther Levin at the estate auction of Mrs Thorne George [Annie Mathews] the niece of Sir George Grey, the manuscript has remained in her family since. Loosely enclosed are some letters addressed to Mrs Thorne George [ca 1930's] at 'Coltan' St Stephen's Avenue Parnell. The journal itself is half calf bind with both boards detached and lacking the spine strip with loose section and pages, the script itself is clear and clean.

In the 1840s Edward Shortland, Sir George Grey, and other non-missionaries began to collect the myths and traditions. At that time many Maori were literate in their own language and the material collected was, in general, written by Maori themselves in the same style as they spoke. The new medium seems to have had minimal effect on the style and content of the stories. Genealogies, songs, and narratives were written out in full, just as if they were being recited or sung. Many of these early manuscripts have been published, and as of 2012 scholars have access to a great body of material (more than for any other area of the Pacific) containing multiple versions of the great myth cycles known in the rest of Polynesia, as well as of the local traditions pertaining only to New Zealand. A great deal of the best material is found in two books, Nga Mahi a nga Tupuna (The Deeds of the Ancestors), collected by Sir George Grey and translated as Polynesian Mythology. $6000

- 287 New Testament
COLENZO, WILLIAM
Colenso's rare First and Second New Testament printings on the Pihia press 1835.
A Volume bound by William Colenso comprising both his first and second printings of the scripture in Maori from the press:

St Paul's Epistles to the Ephesians and Philippians. Ko nga pukapuka o Paora te Apotora kit e hunga o Epeha o Piripai. The first item printed by William Colenso in February 1835 on the press at Pihia after his arrival there on 30 December 1834. 16p. Printed in two columns, title page woodcut illustration of Christ healing two blind men. Pihia 1835. Contemporary hand written ink annotation in Maori p44. Writing to the Church Missionary Society on 16 March 1835, Colenso reports "The first fruits of the New Zealand press, which the Lord hath allowed me to begin and complete and is much liked by the natives...

The Gospel according to St Luke. Ko te Rongo Pai i tuhituhia e Ruka, the second printing of the scriptures by Colenso in December in 1835 but not issued until June 1836. 67p, printed in two columns, title page woodcut illustration of Christ Child in the temple. Pihia 1835. William comments in a private letter that the demand for copies of Luke was high but that the price paid for each copy ["three bushels of potatoes"] deserves, better quality binding.... The demand for both printings was such that: Colenso reported that he had...bound [together] in leather and cloth, upwards of 400 of these gospels [St Paul & St Luke]. Missionary register 1836. p563. 18.5cms, a nice clean copy as issued in fine contemporary tree calf with gilt panelled spine in VG original condition. Pencil signature of pioneer Waimate missionary, agriculturist Richard Davis [1790-1863] inside front cover and ink signature of family member dated 1874.  2. Whited Sepulchres - advertising brochure - Potocki of Montalk. An account of his trial and imprisonment. Geoffrey Potocki de Montalk was one of a group of New Zealand poets which included his friends A. R. D. Fairburn and R. A. K. Mason. However, his proposed career as a romantic poet was severely affected by a court case in 1932. He was arrested after attempting to publish a manuscript of erotic translations of works by Rabelais and Verlaine, with three short bawdy verses of his own. He emerged from prison bitter and determined to flout English convention. He adopted a mock-medieval style of dress, wearing sandals and a crimson tunic, and a cloak. His hair, which had been allowed to grow in prison, continued to grow until it was waist length...; After his release he travelled to Warsaw, where he was well received and reported on by the newspapers....Potocki published his own poetry and pamphlets and intermittently produced his right-wing literary publication, the Right Review (1936 - 1973).

CONDITIONS OF SALE

Please note: it is assumed that all bidders at auction have read and agreed to the conditions described on this page. ART+OBJECT directors are available during the auction viewing to clarify any questions you may have.

1. Registration: Only registered bidders may bid at auction. You are required to complete a bidding card or absentee bidding form prior to the auction giving your correct name, address and telephone contact + supplementary information such as email addresses that you may wish to supply to ART+OBJECT

2. Bidding: The highest bidder will be the purchaser subject to the auctioneer accepting the winning bid and any vendor's reserve having been reached. The auctioneer has the right to refuse any bid. If this takes place or in the event of a dispute the auctioneer may call for bids at the previous lowest bid and proceed from this point. Bids advance at sums decreed by the auctioneer unless signaled otherwise by the auctioneer. No bids may be retracted. The auctioneer retains the right to bid on behalf of the vendor up to the reserve figure.

3. Reserve: Lots are offered and sold subject to the vendor's reserve price being met.

4. Lots offered and sold as described and viewed: ART+OBJECT makes all attempts to accurately describe and catalogue lots offered for sale. Notwithstanding this neither the vendor nor ART+OBJECT accepts any liability for errors of description or faults and imperfections whether described in writing or verbally. This applies to questions of authenticity and quality of the item. Buyers are deemed to have inspected the item thoroughly and proceed on their own judgment. The act of bidding is agreed by the buyer to be an indication that they are satisfied on all counts regarding condition and authenticity.

5. Buyers premium: The purchaser by bidding acknowledges their acceptance of a buyers premium of 18.5% plus GST on the premium to be added to the hammer price in the event of a successful sale at auction. Please consult the relevant auction catalogue to confirm the premium for each sale.

6. ART+OBJECT is an agent for a vendor: A+O has the right to conduct the sale of an item on behalf of a vendor. This may include withdrawing an item from sale for any reason.

7. Payment: Successful bidders are required to make full payment immediately post sale – being either the day of the sale or the following day. If for any reason payment is delayed then a 20% deposit is required immediately and the balance to 100% required within 3 working days of the sale date. Payment can be made by Eftpos, bank cheque or cash. Cheques must be cleared before items are available for collection. Credit cards are not accepted.

8. Failure to make payment: If a purchaser fails to make payment as outlined in point 7 above ART+OBJECT may without any advice to the purchaser exercise its right to: a) rescind or stop the sale, b) re offer the lot for sale to an underbidder or at auction. ART+OBJECT reserves the right to pursue the purchaser for any difference in sale proceeds if this course of action is chosen, c) to pursue legal remedy for breach of contract.

9. Collection of goods: Purchased items are to be removed from ART+OBJECT premises immediately after payment or clearance of cheques. Absentee bidders must make provision for the uplifting of purchased items (see instructions on page four.)

10. Bidders obligations: The act of bidding means all bidders acknowledge that they are personally responsible for payment if they are the successful bidder. This includes all registered absentee or telephone bidders. Bidders acting as an agent for a third party must obtain written authority from ART+OBJECT and provide written instructions from any represented party and their express commitment to pay all funds relating to a successful bid by their nominated agent.

11. Bids under reserve & highest subject bids: When the highest bid is below the vendor's reserve this work may be announced by the auctioneer as sold 'subject to vendor's authority' or some similar phrase. The effect of this announcement is to signify that the highest bidder will be the purchaser at the bid price if the vendor accepts this price. If this highest bid is accepted then the purchaser has entered a contract to purchase the item at the bid price plus any relevant buyers premium.

IMPORTANT ADVICE FOR BUYERS

The following information does not form part of the conditions of sale, however buyers, particularly first time bidders are recommended to read these notes.

A. Bidding at auction: Please ensure your instructions to the auctioneer are clear and easily understood. It is well to understand that during a busy sale with multiple bidders the auctioneer may not be able to see all bids at all times. It is recommended that you raise your bidding number clearly and without hesitation. If your bid is made in error or you have misunderstood the bidding level please advise the auctioneer immediately of your error – prior to the hammer falling. Please note that if you have made a bid and the hammer has fallen and you are the highest bidder you have entered a binding contract to purchase an item at the bid price. New bidders in particular are advised to make themselves known to the sale auctioneer who will assist you with any questions about the conduct of the auction.

B. Absentee bidding: ART+OBJECT welcomes absentee bids once the necessary authority has been completed and lodged with ART+OBJECT. A+O will do all it can to ensure bids are lodged on your behalf but accepts no liability for failure to carry out these bids. See the Absentee bidding form in this catalogue for information on lodging absentee bids. These are accepted up to 2 hours prior to the published auction commencement.

C. Telephone bids: The same conditions apply to telephone bids. It is highly preferable to bid over a landline as the vagaries of cellphone connections may result in disappointment. You will be telephoned prior to your indicated lot arising in the catalogue order. If the phone is engaged or connection impossible the sale will proceed without your bidding. At times during an auction the bidding can be frenetic so you need to be sure you give clear instructions to the person executing your bids. The auctioneer will endeavour to cater to the requirements of phone bidders but cannot wait for a phone bid so your prompt participation is requested.

D. New Zealand dollars: All estimates in this catalogue are in New Zealand dollars. The amount to be paid by successful bidders on the payment date is the New Zealand dollar amount stated on the purchaser invoice. Exchange rate variations are at the risk of the purchaser.

The Dragon Slayers

There is a legend of daring deeds of some of the heroes of long ago. They were five brothers and were the forefathers of the Chiefs of the District of Rotouma - Their names were Puhokura, Beatai, Rongo-hanga, Rongo-hope and Pitaka - the name of the father of these noble fellows was Tamu-ihou-toua.

Now they slew the dragon Hotohokura

As time went on these young lads grew up - and had attained the years of manhood. Soon afterwards reports reached them, of the many people who had perished in travelling the paths which pass Tamuhurui, Tapano, and Likitapu.

So when any person from Rotouma went to Tapano, or to the hilly country, for the purpose of visiting their friends, they
